CHRIST CHURCH—KING AND QUEEN PARISH

In the Episcopal Diocese of Washington

Living the Way of Love since 1640

FRIDAY, JULY 26, 2019—VOL. 3, ISSUE 30

Love God. Love Your Neighbor.
Change the World.

The Episcopal Church Welcomes You.

What is that weird picture?

It is a QR Code. "QR" stands for "Quick Response", which refers to the instant access to the information hidden in the Code. The QR Code is a two-dimensional version of the barcode, known from product packaging in the supermarket. Christ Church will employ two different QR Codes. Both will allow anyone, especially visitors, to use their smartphone to scan the code and be directed to specific information. One code (found in our publications such as newsletters, bulletins, etc.) will immediately direct people to the parish website. The second code found on our "Welcome Cards" found in the pews will take visitors to a special webpage where they can supply contact information and request specific information about Christ Church.

REFLECTIONS ON THIS SUNDAY'S READINGS

(JULY 28, 2019) THE SEVENTH SUNDAY AFTER PENTECOST—PROPER 12, YEAR C

Welcome to Christ Church. The gospel reading today is Luke's account of Jesus' teaching about prayer. He gives his disciples a model for prayer and then speaks of God's willingness to hear our prayers. Jesus describes human situations in which a parent's willingness to give children what they need is a sign that God, who is far more loving and good than any human parent, is even more ready to grant that which we need.

Next in the line of prophets after Elijah, Elisha, and Amos comes Hosea. In his day (the eighth century B.C.), the kingdom of Israel is on the verge of collapse. Hosea's life was a prophetic sign. He married a prostitute and raised her children, giving them names, which indicated God's rejection of Israel. When his wife is unfaithful, he forgives her and takes her back. His life is his message; God will not permanently reject the people even though they have been unfaithful. They will become God's people once again.

We continue today to read Paul's epistle to the Colossians. Jesus in his death, resurrection, and ascension is the ultimate and perfect mediator between God and humanity. In our baptismal union with him, we are not only beneficiaries of his intercession but share with him in that mediatorial role. That role is expressed in the liturgy in the Prayers of the People, and more generally in our life of prayer. We gather in Eucharist as the priestly people of God, called by God into union with Christ, and bringing the world to God that it may be redeemed.
