THE WORD OF GOD

First Reading

A reading from the Acts of the Apostles (16:9-15)

During the night Paul had a vision: there stood a man of Macedonia pleading with him and saying, "Come over to Macedonia and help us." When he had seen the vision, we immediately tried to cross over to Macedonia, being convinced that God had called us to proclaim the good news to them.

We set sail from Troas and took a straight course to Samothrace, the following day to Neapolis, and from there to Philippi, which is a leading city of the district of Macedonia and a Roman colony. We remained in this city for some days. On the sabbath day we went outside the gate by the river, where we supposed there was a place of prayer; and we sat down and spoke to the women who had gathered there. A certain woman named Lydia, a worshiper of God, was listening to us; she was from the city of Thyatira and a dealer in purple cloth. The Lord opened her heart to listen eagerly to what was said by Paul. When she and her household were baptized, she urged us, saying, "If you have judged me to be faithful to the Lord, come and stay at my home." And she prevailed upon us.

PSALM 67 Deus misereatur

(The Congregation sings the italicized verses. “/” --place to pause for a breath)

Jerome Webster Meachen
(b. 1930)

- 1 May God be merciful to us and bless us, *
show us the light of his countenance and come to us.
 - 2 *Let your ways be known upon eath, **
your saving health among all nations.
 - 3 Let the peoples praise you, / O God; *
let all the peoples praise you.
 - 4 *Let the nations be glad and sing for joy, **
for you judge the peoples with equity / and guide all the nations upon eath.
 - 5 Let the peoples praise you, / O God; *
let all the peoples praise you.
 - 6 *The earth has brought forth her increase; **
may God, / our own God, / give us his blessing.
- (Repeat the second half of the double chant)
- 7 May God give us his blessing, *
and may all the ends of the earth stand in awe of him.

THE EPISTLE

A reading from the Revelation to St. John (Revelation 21:10, 22-22:5)

In the spirit the angel carried me away to a great, high mountain and showed me the holy city Jerusalem coming down out of heaven from God.

I saw no temple in the city, for its temple is the Lord God the Almighty and the Lamb. And the city has no need of sun or moon to shine on it, for the glory of God is its light, and its lamp is the Lamb. The nations will walk by its light, and the kings of the earth will bring their glory into it. Its gates will never be shut by day-- and there will be no night there. People will bring into it the glory and the honor of the nations. But nothing unclean will enter it, nor anyone who practices abomination or falsehood, but only those who are written in the Lamb's book of life.

Then the angel showed me the river of the water of life, bright as crystal, flowing from the throne of God and of the Lamb through the middle of the street of the city. On either side of the river is the tree of life with its twelve kinds of fruit, producing its fruit each month; and the leaves of the tree are for the healing of the nations. Nothing accursed will be found there any more. But the throne of God and of the Lamb will be in it, and his servants will worship him; they will see his face, and his name will be on their foreheads. And there will be no more night; they need no light of lamp or sun, for the Lord God will be their light, and they will reign forever and ever.

SEQUENCE HYMN

"O Jesus crowned with all renown"

HYMNAL 292

Reader The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to John.

People Glory to you, Lord Christ.

Jesus said to Judas (not Iscariot), "Those who love me will keep my word, and my Father will love them, and we will come to them and make our home with them. Whoever does not love me does not keep my words; and the word that you hear is not mine, but is from the Father who sent me.

"I have said these things to you while I am still with you. But the Advocate, the Holy Spirit, whom the Father will send in my name, will teach you everything, and remind you of all that I have said to you. Peace I leave with you; my peace I give to you. I do not give to you as the world gives. Do not let your hearts be troubled, and do not let them be afraid. You heard me say to you, 'I am going away, and I am coming to you.' If you loved me, you would rejoice that I am going to the Father, because the Father is greater than I. And now I have told you this before it occurs, so that when it does occur, you may believe."

People Praise to you, Lord Christ.

PRAYERS OF THE PEOPLE

Celebrant:

Jesus came into the world to give us peace. Let us offer prayers to God for the needs of the world, saying: Alleluia! Lord, hear our prayer.

LEM:

For the Church, especially for Justin, the Archbishop of Canterbury; Michael our Presiding Bishop; Mariann and Chilton our Bishops, all the people and parishes of the Diocese of Washington, and for Chris our Priest. May we always be attentive to the creative work of the Spirit and open our hearts and lives to make a dwelling place for God. Alleluia! Lord, hear our prayer.

For this parish family, that we may know that peace which passes all understanding and find strength to meet the many challenges that arise in daily life.

Alleluia! Lord, hear our prayer.

For peace in all places of conflict, and for all those who have died in the service of our nation, that God's glory will shine upon them and that they may share in the peace of the heavenly kingdom. Alleluia! Lord, hear our prayer.

For all whose lives have been disrupted by floods and tornadoes, that God will give them the strength they need as they face this challenge. Alleluia! Lord, hear our prayer.

For those whose hearts are troubled and fearful, particularly refugees, the homeless, the homebound and those for whom we ought to pray, remembering especially those on our Prayer List (the people may add petitions for any need or concern). May they find that God's presence will be real for them and fill them with peace. Alleluia! Lord, hear our prayer.

For those who have died, especially the brave men and women who sacrificed their lives in defense of the liberties we cherish. (The people may add petitions either silently or aloud) May they rejoice in that holy city whose light is God's glory and whose lamp is the Lamb. Alleluia! Lord, hear our prayer.

Lifting our voices with all creation, with Mary the Mother of Jesus and all the saints who have borne witness to the Risen Christ, let us offer ourselves and one another to the living God through Christ. Alleluia! To you, O Lord, we give praise and glory.

All: Blessed are you, God of heaven and earth, who gives us the water of life. Hear our prayers for all people and send your Holy Spirit into our lives that we may live in your love and dwell in your peace until all the ends of the earth stand in awe of you, for ever and ever. Amen.

THE PEACE

Celebrant The peace of the Lord be always with you.
People And also with you.

+ Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord.

Hosanna in the highest.

The people remain standing

Holy and gracious Father: In your infinite love you made us for yourself, and, when we had fallen into sin and become subject to evil and death, you, in your mercy, sent Jesus Christ, your only and eternal Son, to share our human nature, to live and die as one of us, to reconcile us to you, the God and Father of all. He stretched out his arms upon the cross, and offered himself, in obedience to your will, a perfect sacrifice for the whole world.

On the night he was handed over to suffering and death, our Lord Jesus Christ took bread; and when he had given thanks to you, he broke it, and gave it to his disciples, and said, "Take, eat: This is my Body, which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me."

After supper he took the cup of wine; and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, and said, "Drink this, all of you: This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is shed for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me."

Therefore we proclaim the mystery of faith:

Celebrant and People

Christ has died. Christ is risen. Christ will come again.

The Celebrant continues

We celebrate the memorial of our redemption, O Father, in this sacrifice of praise and thanksgiving. Recalling his death, resurrection, and ascension, we offer you these gifts.

Sanctify them by your Holy Spirit to be for your people the Body and Blood of your Son, the holy food and drink of new and unending life in him. Sanctify us also that we may faithfully receive this holy Sacrament, and serve you in unity, constancy, and peace; and at the last day bring us with all your saints into the joy of your eternal kingdom.

All this we ask through your Son Jesus Christ: By him, and with him, and in him, in the unity of the Holy Spirit all honor and glory is yours, Almighty Father, now and for ever.

THE LORD'S PRAYER

Celebrant And now, praying in the words that Jesus taught us,

People and Celebrant

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy Name, thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, for ever and ever. Amen.

THE POST COMMUNION PRAYER (Church of England)

Celebrant Let us pray.

Celebrant and People

Father of all,

we give you thanks and praise,

that when we were still far off

you met us in your Son and brought us home.

Dying and living, he declared your love,

gave us grace, and opened the gate of glory.

May we who share Christ's body live his risen life;

we who drink his cup bring life to others;

we whom the Spirit lights give light to the world.

Keep us firm in the hope you have set before us,

so we and all your children shall be free,

and the whole earth live to praise your name;

through Christ our Lord. Amen.

THE BLESSING FOR EASTERTIDE (Church of England)

God the Father, by whose glory Christ was raised from the dead, strengthen you to walk with him in his risen life;

and the blessing of God Almighty,

+ the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit, be with you,

and remain with you always. Amen.
