Ordinary Time

This term is used in liturgical churches like the Episcopal (Anglican) Church and the Roman Catholic Church to indicate the parts of the liturgical year that are not included in the major seasons of the church calendar. Ordinary time includes the Monday after the Feast of the Baptism of our Lord through the Tuesday before Ash Wednesday, and the Monday after Pentecost through the Saturday before the First Sunday of Advent. A vigil or other service anticipating the First Sunday of Advent on the Saturday before that Sunday would also be included in the season of Advent.

Ordinary time can be understood in terms of the living out of Christian faith and the meaning of Christ's resurrection in ordinary life. The term "ordinary time" is not used in the Prayer Book, but the season after Pentecost can be considered ordinary time. It may be referred to as the "green season," because green is the usual liturgical color for this period of the church year. The BCP provides numbered propers with collects and lectionary readings for the Sundays of the Season after Pentecost.

The Epiphany season includes the Epiphany, the First Sunday after the Epiphany: the Baptism of our Lord Jesus Christ, and the Second Sunday through the Last Sunday after the Epiphany (BCP, p. 31). In view of the Epiphany themes that are presented throughout the Epiphany season, it should not be considered ordinary time. However, many parishes use green as the liturgical color for the Second Sunday through the Sunday prior to the Last Sunday after the Epiphany, and sometimes the Last Sunday after the Epiphany. Epiphany season and the season after Pentecost vary in length depending on the date of Easter (see BCP, pp. 884-885). Adapted from: An Episcopal Dictionary

REFLECTIONS ON THIS SUNDAY'S READINGS

(JUNE 23, 2019) THE SECOND SUNDAY AFTER PENTECOST—PROPER 7, YEAR C

The liturgy this Sunday has as its central sign God's power to save and restore human life to wholeness. The gospel reading is about the man possessed by a legion of demons. The man had been abandoned by his neighbors. Jesus has compassion and drives out the demons, restoring the man to his right mind and to his community.

The first reading continues the story of the prophet Elijah. The consequence of his opposition to King Ahab and his wife, Jezebel, was exile. Elijah flees into the wilderness. There he is sustained by miraculous food and sent on to the mountain of the Lord. There he cries out to God that he is alone in his faithfulness. However, God speaks to him and sends him back for his final confrontation with the enemies of the God of Israel.

Today's reading from the epistle to the Galatians is a continuation of Paul's teaching concerning salvation by faith. It is that faith which brings us into a living relationship with God. That relationship transcends all human distinctions. No one is outside God's family. The sign and meaning of that relationship is baptism, the sacrament in which we are adopted as God's children and in which we are united with Jesus in his dying and rising.

The liturgy of the Eucharist brings us together as those who in baptism have "put on Christ. There is neither Jew nor Greek, there is neither slave nor free, there is neither male nor female," for in this liturgy we are all one in Christ Jesus. God does not reject those who are far from God, not even those who are living in disobedience. As Christ healed the demoniac and God supported Elijah, so the divine compassion is operative in our lives today.

Galatians 3:27-28

For all of you who were baptized into Christ have clothed yourselves with Christ. There is neither Jew nor Gentile, neither slave nor free, nor is there male and female, for you are all one in Christ Jesus.

Evento de Jóvenes Episcopales – EJE19

The Episcopal Church's Department of Faith Formation, in partnership with the Episcopal Church Office of Latino Ministries and Office of Global Partnerships, and the seven dioceses of Province IX are looking forward to next month's landmark event, Evento de Jóvenes Episcopales (EJE19).

Slated for July 17 to July 20, 2019, EJE19 is set to welcome young people between the ages of 16-26 and their adult mentors, all of whom live and worship in and around the dioceses of Province IX, for several days of worship, music, workshops, and community-building. The dioceses of Province IX are: Colombia, Central Ecuador, Dominican Republic, Ecuador Litoral, Honduras, Puerto Rico and Venezuela. They will be joined at EJE19 by delegations from Iglesia Anglicana de la Region Central de America (IARCA), Cuba, Mexico and Brazil. This Spanish-language event will be held at Ciudad del Saber in Panama City, Panama, a former U.S. military base in Panama City that has been converted to an entrepreneurial hub and conference facility, with theaters, auditoriums, classrooms and dormitory-style lodging for EJE19 participants. Presiding Bishop Michael Curry is scheduled to attend.

"I wish to thank The Presiding Bishop of TEC, the Most Reverend Michael Curry; the President of Province IX, the Right Reverend Víctor Scantlebury and the Organizing Committee of EJE19, for having selected the Episcopal Church of Panama, another Branch of the Jesus Movement, as the headquarters of the first Episcopal Youth Event in Latin America," said Bishop Murray, Bishop, Episcopal Church of Panama and Presiding Bishop of IARCA. "Working with young people is fundamental for our church. It gives us the opportunity to influence, train and motivate the leadership of the next generation, in an integral way, on emerging issues that challenge evangelization, intentional discipleship and our response in matters of social justice in favor of building the Kingdom of God in the midst of the realities where we have been called to be Church. It is a pleasure and an honor to hold EJE19 in the Episcopal Church in Panama."

"EJE19 will be an incredible gathering of young people to learn about and claim their place as members of the Jesus Movement," said Presiding Bishop Michael B. Curry. "We are the Episcopal Church, but the Lord we follow wants us to be more than that. We are baptized disciples of the Jesus of Nazareth, and we are therefore not just the Episcopal Church, but we are the Episcopal branch of the Jesus Movement. We are people committed to living his way of unselfish, sacrificial love. I'm looking forward to joining this community in July."

EJE19 is styled after the popular Episcopal Youth Event, which is held every three years. Planning for EJE19 has included a team of Province IX youth and adult mentors called by their bishop and who have been meeting since the fall of 2017. In 2018, General Convention approved $350,000 in funding for the event.

You can follow EJE19 on via our webpage, episcopalchurch.org/eje19 or our Facebook group, facebook.com/groups/joveneseiscopales or via the event app available for Android and iPhone, @EventodeJóvenesEpiscopales
