

Christ Church Now Livestreams the 10:00 am Service on YouTube

Dear Parish Family,

I have some very exciting news to share! You can now watch our 10:00 am service live. You can also catch past services that have been edited and archived. This is a brave new world and we are still learning how to do this while trying to work a few bugs out, but the possibilities are unlimited. I am always looking for new partners to help me grow this new video ministry.

We will not only be able to better minister to our own members (homebound parishioners and those otherwise who cannot attend church on a given Sunday), but we will now be able to reach out and possibly foster the creation a larger community at a time when the world is so sorely divided on so many issues and individuals are becoming increasingly isolated.

While Joel Osteen has nothing to fear by what we are doing, this ministry will hopefully allow others to experience and come to know Christ as he is lived out in the worship of the Episcopal/Anglican branch of the Jesus movement. They will also connect with a faith community filled with joy and wonder as we continue to be led by the Holy Spirit.

So, please check this out and let me know what you think. Our Christ Church YouTube Channel can be access by Clicking Here or by going to our web-site at www.cckqp.net And don't forget to subscribe!

God's Blessings,

Chris +

"Fifth" Sunday Holy Communion and Picnic

We had a wonderful gathering of 60 parishioners for our latest "Fifth" Sunday service on June 30, 2019, located on the beautiful shores of St. Clement's Bay. Following our "Mass on the Grass," we enjoyed an amazing picnic! Our deepest thanks go to Lynn and Chip Burton for opening their lovely home to us. Also, many thanks to Dottie Pecson who entertained us with her harp.

REFLECTIONS ON THIS SUNDAY'S READINGS

(JULY 7, 2019) THE FOURTH SUNDAY AFTER PENTECOST—PROPER 9, YEAR C

Welcome to Christ Church. This Sunday's liturgy holds up before us the call to go into the world to proclaim the gospel of the crucified and risen Lord. Luke's account of Jesus' sending out seventy of his disciples to announce the Kingdom of God is also a call to us. We were first called and commissioned in our baptism when we promised to strive to live as disciples of Christ, and promised to proclaim by word and example the good news of God in Christ.

The first reading from takes up the story of Elisha, the successor to Elijah. This prophet is more of a wonder-worker than his master had been. Here he acts of the agent of God in healing a foreigner who had been a major threat to Israel. The healing of Naaman was a sign to the people that the God of Israel is the true God and Elisha, God's prophet. Jesus would use this story as a sign that God calls all people, not just the Jews.

The second reading is the conclusion of the letter to the Galatians. Paul insists that those who demand outward signs of faith have failed to see that the true outward sign of faith is Christ's crucifixion and the change in our way of living which faith in Christ crucified brings. That faith produces people who will proclaim Christ and struggle against those evils in this world that destroy human life.

In baptism we, like Elisha and the seventy disciples, are commissioned and empowered to carry on God's work. At the conclusion of every liturgy is a dismissal, a sending forth of all God's people. Again, in the dismissal today, we hear Jesus sending us out as he did the seventy, to proclaim the coming of the Kingdom and to heal all who suffer.

BULLETIN INSERTS

July 7, 2019

The Feast of Nathan Söderblom

Swedish bishop Nathan Söderblom was the first member of the clergy to receive the Nobel Peace Prize. Born Lars Olof Jonathan Söderblom, on January 15, he graduated from Uppsala University in 1883 and was ordained a priest in the Church of Sweden (Lutheran) in 1893. He earned his doctorate in theology at the Sorbonne and taught theology at the University of Uppsala until his appointment as Archbishop of Uppsala in 1914.

During the First World War, Archbishop Söderblom called on Christian leaders to work for peace and justice. He believed that all Christian church communities were called to fight unhealthy nationalism, racism, militarism and the oppression of minorities. At the same time, he proposed that Jesus' message of love disseminated from pulpits, in newspapers, and in schools to create a powerful body of Christian opinion across national borders in favor of peace.

He famously wrote in his work, The Content of Christian Faith: "For me everything is absorbed by the one big question – the question of reconciliation and healing [restoration.] Do we see God's way in the terrible chaos of this world; the way which for the human reason is a source of offense, but remains the only possible way? This way does not avoid the tragedy of human life but goes through the very middle of it."

Archbishop Söderblom took great interest in the early liturgical renewal movement among Roman Catholics, Anglicans and Lutherans. He saw a profound connection between liturgical worship, personal prayer, and social justice. In 1925 he invited Anglican, Reformed, Lutheran, and Orthodox leaders to Stockholm and together they formed the Universal Christian Council on Life and Work. His ecumenical work led eventually to the formation of the World Council of Churches in 1948.

Söderblom's advocacy for Church unity as a means toward to accomplishing world peace earned him the Nobel Peace Prize in 1930. After his death in Uppsala, Sweden, in 1931 his body was interred in Uppsala Cathedral. He is commemorated in the liturgical calendar of the Episcopal Church on July 12.

Collect for Nathan Söderblom

Almighty God, we bless your Name for the life and work of Nathan Söderblom, Archbishop of Uppsala, who helped to inspire the modern liturgical revival and worked tirelessly for cooperation among Christians. Inspire us by his example, that we may ever strive for the renewal of your Church in life and worship, for the glory of your Name; who with Jesus Christ and the Holy Spirit lives and reigns, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.
